A QUEEN'S DEATH MAKES A CHANGE

Only now are people at Windsor and the royal retainers beginning to realize what the death of Queen Victoria meant to them.

weeping changes were inaugurated last week in the royal establishments. The older servants are being pensioned. Fraser, the late Queen's police superintendent, almost as familiar a figure as the Queen herself on public occasions, goes into retirement, and head keepers and gardeners disappear into the obscurity of the pension list.

The King is putting his house in order with a vengeance. The Prince Consort's rooms, which by Queen Victoria's orders were closed and kept as they were at the time of his death, have been opened and refurnished in modern style, transformed into rooms where the members of the royal family can live in comfort.

The jubilee presents and many favorite pictures of Queen Victoria have been sent to London, and the Queen's personal belongings have been distributed among the members of her family.

Even her dogs have not escaped the new order. The smooth-coated collies which were her special favorites have been distributed among the people of Windsor, and the other dogs, about 70 in all, have been claimed by various princesses, for the King and Alexandra care little for anything but pugs and terriers.

Nearly 5000 drams of costly wines from the late Queen's cellars will be sold at public auction in London. Each bottle will have the royal label on it. Various reasons are given for this almost unprecedented action.

The most probable consists in the fact that royal hospitality is now generally confined to whisky and soda and champagne, and to the lapse of the practice which many court functionaries formerly received daily a bottle of Madeira or port as part of their salaries.

TO ASSURANCE.—The prevailing opinion in diplomatic circles in Paris is that King Alexander, of Serbia, has fallen in his marriage, a victim to a well-laid plot and that his days upon the Serbian throne are numbered. A certain amount of credence is given to the report that Russia is maneuvering to place one of her Grand Dukes in Alexander's place, though every hope is expressed that she will not pursue the point, as in the event of difficulties arising between Russia and Austria over the Balkan State, France will find herself in a very delicate position. The more excitable politicians in Paris are inclined to see in the rapid conclusion of the Russian loan a preparatory step on the part of the Empire to meet the Serbian complication. There is every reason to believe that Austria, notwithstanding her desire to uphold the Obrenovitch dynasty, will, owing to her own internal complications, be unable to present any formidable resistance.

A Very Remarkable Remedy.

"It is with a good deal of pleasure and satisfaction that I recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Druggist A. W. Sawtelle, of Hartford, Conn. "A lady customer, seeing the remedy exposed for sale on my show case, said to me: 'I really believe that medicine saved my life the past summer while at the shore,' and she became so enthusiastic over its merits that I at once made up my mind to recommend it in the future. Recently a gentleman came into my store so overcome with colic pains that he sank at once to the floor. I gave him a dose of the remedy which helped him. I repeated the dose and in fifteen minutes he left my store smilingly informing me that he felt as well as ever." Sold by Richard Gibson, druggist.

Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup for soothing babies. Full-size bottle, 10 cents. Cures Wind Colic, Diarrhoea, Fever, Griping Pains, Sour Stomach, Loss of Sleep, Infants' Cough, Cholera, and all the ailments of infancy. Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup also promotes the digestion and soothes the baby. Sold by Richard Gibson and all druggists.

IN ALL STAGES of Nasal Catarrh there should be cleanliness. As experience proves, Ely's Cream Balm is a cleanser, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It is not drying nor irritating, and does not produce sneezing. Price 50c at druggists or by mail. Trial size, 10 cents by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

If people only knew what we know about Kodol Dyspepsia Cure it would be used in nearly every household, as there are few people who do not suffer from a feeling of fullness after eating, belching, flatulence, sour stomach or waterbrash, caused by indigestion or dyspepsia. A preparation such as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which, with no aid from the stomach, will digest your food, certainly can't help but do you good.

BREAD.

CORBY'S MOTHER'S BREAD

IS THE BEST IN THE WORLD.

The Corby process of mixing the dough puts 22 per cent more gluten in "Mother's Bread."

In a recent interview Mr. Corby gave the following explanation of how this was accomplished:

"Chemists have found that flour does not contain gluten in the flour state, but there are two proteids called 'glyaden' and 'glutenin,' which, when hydrated into the dough mass, from gluten in the dough, and by the ordinary method in use and the hand manipulation it has been impossible to develop all the gluten, until we brought out our new patented dough-making machine and process.

This machine and process absolutely brings every particle of the glyaden and glutenin together, which is the only possible way of forming the gluten.

It is the presence of gluten which makes "Mother's Bread" so healthful—so nutritious and so wholesome." Sold by all grocers.
